

A Tale of Two Cities, p 2

When Charles Clemmer volunteered for himself and his wife, Jean Ann, to host the CBA in Abingdon, no one knew how entertaining and enjoyable it would become. They drove their two MGCs over to Abingdon and brought their children and grandchildren to the festivities, as well. Delightful! The weather was perfect; the hotel was wonderful and well located for our adventures; the awards banquet facility was modern and lovely; the banquet dinner was oh so delicious and served so well; and, Abingdon is so historic and pleasant. The birthday cake was also so moist and pleasing.

Our road trips took us over parts of the Claw of the Dragon, particularly over the Back of the Dragon to Hungry Mother State Park and Restaurant and lake.
