

RIVERTECH, HUDSON MUSEUM
& LUNCH AT THE "SIDETRACK" RESTAURANT
SATURDAY MAY 7TH 2005

- 10.00 am - Leave the Meijer parking lot
- 10.45 am - Arrive at Rivertech; the Alfa Club will be having a technical session later in the day.
- 12 noon - Lunch at the "Sidetrack" Restaurant
- After lunch - Visit the Hudson Museum opposite the restaurant.

S I N C E 1 9 2 7

The World's last Hudson dealership

Automotive Heritage Museum and Miller Motors Hudson

Ypsilanti has a unique automotive history for a city of its size.

Apex Motors which produced the "ACE" car from 1920-1922 was located on

South River Street and Preston Tucker whose family owned the Ypsilanti Machine and Tool Company developed and built the prototype for his "Tucker Torpedo."

Philip Wiltshire (248) 676 0986