

A Tale of Two Cities, p 3

Hungry Mother Restaurant opened especially for AMGCRA and served our entire membership an exclusive lunch after the car show there close to the pristine lake and next to the restaurant. After lunch, we continued our travels on the sporty-car roads to Konnarock, White Mountain and Keith and Gail Sanders' Mountain View Lodge for the view and group picture in front of the peaks of the mountain; and, after a short respite, on to Abingdon for sightseeing and dinner before the play.

The historic and luxurious Martha Washington Inn was very good to us by permitting all of our MGCs to park on its resort across the street from the Barter, while we enjoyed Sherlock Holmes and the American Problem, which was set in the time of
