

Modifications made recently to a $1\frac{1}{2}$ -litre M.G. saloon for an American customer, by University Coachwork, Ltd., include blanking off the quarter lights and fitting dummy hood irons. Wheel covers were made for the rear wings and, in addition, winking light indicators were installed and the bumpers raised and reinforced for use in the U.S.A.

Originally printed in the Autocar, February 16, 1951